

POWERHOUSE GYM

D E N V E R

Membership Sales Associate

Powerhouse Gym Denver is a gym and fitness facility located at 300 E. Alameda Ave (corner of Logan & Alameda). This is a neighborhood gym with a great demographic and member base. We are currently seeking an energetic and personable membership sales associate.

This is a part time position offering approximately 15-20 hours per week. This is a flexible position, but the candidate will need to accommodate a flexible schedule including weekends.

Responsibilities include generating leads and setting appointments. This is a hunting/prospecting position that requires prospecting via cold calling, outside promotions, networking, etc., in order to set appointments for a tour. You will report to the Membership Manager who will be responsible for closing the sale.

This position requires an outgoing personality, positive attitude and desire to network with people. You must have good communication skills and a general knowledge of the gym environment and the benefits of regular exercise.

The pay is $8/hour plus commissions for each appointment/tour you set-up.

If this interests you and you have the right qualifications and attitude, please send a resume and an explanation of why this would be a good opportunity for you to info@powerhousegymdenver.com. Please title the subject of your email Membership Sales Associate Position.

Thanks